“‘Darlin’ Caroline’ is a winsome love song and an endearingly earnest account of the many reasons Brew fell heart over hills with the place he and his family now call home.”

Nick & Brew put on a great show, blending beautiful vocals with exceptional instrumentation. We particularly appreciated the inclusion of two Ola Belle Reed songs and can't wait for them to come back in '26.

It's hard to put into words, isn't it, when something just feels right? But that's exactly what it was for Nick and Brew. Like long lost brothers: one from the South, the other from the North; one steeped in the Americana music of Townes Van Zandt and Gillian Welch, the other the Bluegrass sound of Bill Monroe and Tony Rice. When they met in the vibrant music scene of Asheville, North Carolina, it just felt right. We think when you hear them, it'll just feel right for you, too.
